THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF TEXTILES (SHRI KHURSHID ALAM KHAN): (a) to (c) It is the policy of the Cotton Corporation of India to effect purchases by participating in the open auction held in all the Mandis under the supervision of Agricultural Produce Marketing Committee. Thus, the Corporation effect purchases directly from the growers and not from the traders. The Cotton Corporation also purchase kapas pooled by the Societies from their grower members. However, at places where regulated markets are not functioning, procedure and norms have been prescribed to ensure that kapas are directly purchased from the farmers.

(d) and (e) The total cotton crop during the current cotton seasons is estimated at 94 lakh bales. A total quantity of 8,84,342 bales of cotton has been purchased by the Cotton Corporation of India from various cotton producing States including Gujarat during the current cotton season upto 25th February, 1986. The prices paid by the Cotton Corporation of India for the different varieties of cotton during the current season varied between Rs. 360 to Rs. 700 par quintal depending on the variety and quantity of Kapas.
